

KNICKERBOCKER DEPOSITORS GET TIME FOR ACTION

Court Grants Two Weeks Philadelphia Student Tried to Longer to Make Arrangements for Reopening.

Unanimity Among Depositors to Warrant Resumption.

Must Put Up $2,400,000.

It was announced that the resignaof all the members of the old time suggested by the Court. In re-Justice Clark announced that the $2,400,-800 pledged by the stockholders must be the depositors the privilege of swooping tal, and that he came and crippling it from the sta

"Surely the showing made to-day," said the Court, "is more than enough to justify a continuance of two weeks. St goes without saying that the gaining of the last 25 per cent, of assents is more laborious and difficult than the gaining of the first 75 per cent.

Some of the depositors are doubtless holding out in the hope of receiving cash. It is very doubtful if their hopes will be realized. It would be an injustice to the other depositors, and their The minority depositors should understand that the recalcitrant minority may block the plan entirely."

Fees of the Attorneys.

Attorney-General Jackson has filed with Justice Clark a protest in the form of an affidavit against the approval of medical college." form of contract which the temporary receivers of the Knickerbocker Trust with offices at No. 71 Nassau street, the Home Savings Bank and the Equi-Company desire to enter into with law- and lives with his father and mother, table Trust Company. Walsh was ac-Company desire to enter into with lawyers. He says that the receivers have Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Purdy. The Purcused of having loaned funds of the falled to furnish either to the court or dys are regarded as persons of means. Chicago National Bank and its allied to his office any information as to the probable volume of the legal business upon a percentage basis.

If the receivership is made permanent the Attorner-General says, the amount which will pass through the receivers' hands may reach $50,000,000.
Under the circumstances he is opposed to any percentage plan of compensation for counsel. He advocates that the compensation should be fixed at a maximum yearly limit with pro rata allowances, according to the nature of the work and the period of the employment.

In the receivership is made permanent the triangle out here," when a man of about forty-inve, with gray hair and mustache, pushed past her.

"I am C. Franklin Purdy," he said, "and I am in great trouble. I must admit to you that my wife is not at home. She left here at noon yesterday, and I thought for a time that she was into the loans and that they knew noth-inventing her sister in Harlem. Now I have discovered that she went to Phila.

Warm Facts For Cool Days.

over your Summer vacation, but It would be well to make note

32,428

"Summer Resort" Advertisements were printed in The World dur-

13,515 More than in the Herald or any other wantantisi affice.

These figures are "hot" from the "Certifying" department et a prominent Chartered

IGOES TO RESCUE WIFE CAUGHT IN JEWEL SCANDAL

Pawn Gems Mrs. Purdy Advertised as Lost.

Says There Must Be Practical New York Woman Arrested When She Tried to Save Guernsey from Cell.

a practical unanimity of consent and rested. He then said that he was Hor-

Guernsey Told Story.

him by his wire, who wanted him to pay his expenses through college. This story was doubted, and under further questioning the prisoner based of the prisoner based of the names, the further questioning the prisoner based of the names of the names of the prisoner based of the names of the names of the prisoner based of the names of the name came hysterical. His condition be- the affirmative. When it was Palmer's came such that the police did not take turn to respond, he arose with his head in the hospital.

in communicating with Mrs. Purdy. continuous opposition to the plan may following the receipt of a telegram from him. Mrs. Purdy left her handsome home yesterday at noon and hur-ried to Philadelphia. She got into had been given after his indictment by communication with the Chief of Police there on her arrival and said to him: "This young man did not steal that brooch. The jewels are mine. I gave them to him to pay his way through

World called at the Purdy home to- on fictitious and insufficiently secured although they express a wish to con- day a woman answered the door bell. notes to nearly a score of struggling

"I believe it is all a horrible mistake. more than $2,000,000. Methods of con-I am a chronic invalid, and was forced cealment employed in carrying the to be out of New York the greater part transactions on the books of the bank of last summer. I have never met this and alleged misrepresentations made in man Guernsey and have never even reports to the national bank examinheard of him. I can't imagine where ers kept the latter in ignorance of the my wife could have met him. Husband Defends Her.

"I do not believe now that my wife the institutions gave that brooch to Guernsey. I don't see how she could have done it without my seeing her. I believe yet that all been asked to appear in the police the transactions charged against him, ness against my own wife, but I will was for the good of the bank he head-

Guernsey at North Beach last summer and that they had been on the most

The third Bolleau Girl Art Calendar, in ten colors, will be distributed through The Sunday World in Greater New York next

CLARA MORRIS'S GREAT NEW STORY BEGINS TO-DAY

You Will Find the Opening Chapter of "THE NEW EAST LYNNE" on Page 7 Read It and Tell Every Member of Your Family to Read It

"Circulation Books Open to All."

" Circulation Books Open to All."

SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 1908. NEW YORK,

PRICE ONE CENT.

BANKER WALSH FOUND GUILTY ON 54 COUNTS

OLD BOARD IS TO QUIT. HUSBAND BELIEVES HER Chicago Magnate, Charged With Juggling $16,000,000 in Notes, Faces Prison.

5 YEARS LEAST PENALTY

Jury, Out Since Thursday, Brings in Sweeping Verdict —Prisoner Asks New Trial.

Counsel for the banker immediately hear argument on the application a week from next Tuesday.

One Juror Weeps

Walsh was present in the court-room Questioned further by the police, the young man said the trooch had been given him by his wife, who wanted him to pay his a pay his wife. burst into tears as he took his seat in him to jail, but made him a prisoner bowed, swayed as though about to fall, and muttered somethin- behind his The youth lost no time, so it is said. hand. Not until the question had been repeated a third time did the juror controi his feelings sufficiently to reply. Walsh was allowed to remain at lib

the Federal Grand Jury. $16,000,000 in Notes-

The charge against Walsh grew out of the closing, in 1905, of the Chicago Mr. Purdy is a real estate broker, President, and its allied institutions. When a reporter for The Evening institutions, aggregating some $16,000,000.

true condition of the bank's finances and the nature of their securities for several years prior to the closing of court, and I suppose I must be a wit- but clung to the defense that all he did offered evidence to show that since the the Clearing-House banks, amounting to the same amount, payable in five years. The collateral released, Waish was able party from rough treatment at the to go ahead with the building of his hands of the other passengers.

All Good, His Defense.

EVELYN THAW ON THE WITNESS STAND Sketched by PENRHYN STANLAWS Especially for The Evening World.

TRAPS KISSER IN AN "L" TRAIN

Jenkowitz Goes Free by Telling Judge He Will Be Married To-Day.

Grace Oellrich is a pretty fourteenear-old girl who lives at No. 562 Fiftyfirst street, South Brooklyn. One day last fall when she was coming home alone on a B. R. T. train a stranger suddenly rose up from his seat and cissed her fervently. The girl was so astonished that she failed to make an outcry until the man had jumped off the car and got away.

When she reached the house, crying and hysterical, her mother told her the gratulation when the Clearing-House Spring street. For twenty years Dey had slipped about on ledges five to twenty stories above the street. He Walsh was on the witness stand for formance and to keep on the lookout for $16,551,425 had been added to the bank had discarded the leather girdle usually this thing will be explained. I have two days. He admitted nearly all of him. But Grace saw nobody that re-surplus, making the total now $22,635. sembled the insolent stranger until last night as she was en route home on a Fifth avenue train. There was a man across the aisle who looked remarkably like the kisser of last fall, and while she was trying to make up her mind about him he rose up and threw both arms about her neck. The girl screamed and fought and clung to him. Policeman Michael Nolan, of the Coney Island station, who chanced to be in the next car, arrived in time to save the offensive party from rough treatment at the hands of the other passengers.

Ye-day in the Fifth Avenue Police

This compared with $18,460,700 at this high and $16,764,575 two long and $16,764,575 two long and $16,764,575 two long and there was a man across the aisle who looked remarkably this time last year and $16,764,575 two long and familiarity with his hazardous work. Dey entered the warerooms of Bellias & Hess on his second window. No one in the place gave him any attention, although one of the girls in the establishment remarked to him as he slid out on the ledge that he ought to protect himself with a guard rope. Dey smiled and was not seen again.

Below in the street several persons were watching him at work. They were horrified to see him fall backward, turn turtle several times and land in a heap on the sidewalk.

Species 1,000,000 at the same fall, and while she increase $1,528,100 in the street several persons were watching him at work. They were horrified to see him fall backward, turn turtle several times and land in a heap on the sidewalk.

Species 1,000,000 at the same fall, and while she increase $1,528,100 in the street several persons were watching him at work. They were horrified to see him fall backward, turn turtle several times and land in a heap on the sidewalk.

Species 1,000,000 at the same fall, and the place fall same fall and the place fall same fall and fall and the place fall same fall and the pla sembled the insolent stranger until last 475. This compared with $18,460,700 at ity and familiarity with his hazardous ed, and that all of the loans proved Fifth avenue train. There was a man years ago. The police of Philadelphia reported to good, and that no one lost anything in across the aisle who looked remarkably the New York police that Mrs. Purdy consequence of them. In substantial like the kisser of last fall, and while she had told them that she had met young tion of the latter claim the defense was trying to make up her mind about an increase of $38,537,500 in deposits closing of the banks Waish had bought about her neck. The girl screamed and The cash gain was also pronounced. The back the collateral taken from him by fought and clung to him. Policeman statement issued was as follows: $7,000,000, giving in payment a note for tion, who chanced to be in the next car,

Court the kisser said he was Joh Jenkowitz, thirty-five years old, of No 653 Forty-eighth street. He said he ha been drinking last night; also that h had a grandmother ninety-two years old and a mother to support, and that he meant to be married to-day. Under the circumstances the Magistrate disnissed the charge and put him unde

BANK SURPLUS NOW $22,635,475; BIG GAIN MADE

The Clearing-House Statement Shows $16,551,425 Increase -All the Items Good.

Financiers had further cause for con-

WINDOW CLEANER FALLS 5 STORIES TO INSTANT DEATH

Twenty Years Expert at the Business, He Discarded the Leather Safety Girdle.

A man's body whirling from the fifth floor of the ten-story building at Broadway and Prince street at 11 o'clock today spread consternation among women shoppers and drew a tremendous Death was instantaneous, the unfortu-nate man's head and shoulders being crushed into an unrecognizable mass. He was John Dey, forty-five years old, of No. 32 East Thirty-ninth street, and a window cleaner in the employ of the Consolidated Cleaning Company, in Invalid Makes Her First Visit in Months to Prisoner at Tombs, Returning to Hotel in Partial Collapse.

SLAYER WANTS YOUNG WIFE TO TELL STORY IN OPEN COURT.

Justice Dowling Has Found No Reason for Keeping Former Revelations About White Restricted to Session From Which Public Shall Be Barred.

Over the protests of her physicians and her son's lawyers, Mrs. Was iam Thaw, who yesterday testified in the trial of Harry Thaw, left a sick bed at the Hotel Lorraine to-day and drove to the Tombs, to pay to "Murderers' Row" the first visit she has made in many months.

She came in a cab, which moved at an easy pace in order that the aged invalid might be spared every possible jar to her weakened frame. A trained nurse accompanied her. A big crowd saw her alight with difficulty at the Centre street doors of the prison and make her way feebly across the sidewalk to the iron gates. Despite her weakness, the nother spent nearly an hour talking to Harry Thaw through the bars of his cell. Then she returned to her hotel and was put to bed in a state

Evelyn Thaw went from her Park avenue house last night to the Hotel Lorraine to see her mother-in-law. The former chorus girl spent more than an hour with Mrs. William Thaw.

After paying her usual visit to the Tombs Evelyn Thaw to-day drove direct to Lawyer Martin W. Littleton's office to go over with him the testimony which she is to give on Monday. When Tham's personal counsel, A. | balance against Evelyn Tham's story, Russell Peabody, arrived at the Tombs but Justice Dowling has decided against said that, on behalf of his client's him. nother, he would apply to Commis- Justice Dowling cannot see that there stoner Coggey for a special pass ad- should be public suppression of testinitting Mrs. William Thaw to the mony that already has been so widely ombs to-morrow and on all succeeding printed, and Mr. Jerome's application undays until the trial closes.

Morehouse Lawrence, had arrived from | If the District-Attorney is permitted California.

upon as highly important, there has At the last trial Evelyn Thaw con-been a change in the plans of the de-Miss Lawrence will be followed by acteristic position. He declared Jerome the main details of her testimony in the main details of her testimony in personally, said Thaw, he did not observe until three physicians have jeet to having his wife tell her whole reserve until three physicians have sworn to Thaw's strange mental and physical characteristics at various stages in his early manhood. Two of these physicians, Dr. Wells, an English practitioner, who once had Thaw lish practitioner, who once had Thaw at Monte Carlo, and lish practitioner, who once had that under his care at Monte Carlo, and a Frenchman, who treated him at Paris, will arrive by steamer Tuesday. The third, who comes from up New York State, has written that he will reach there Monday. nere Monday.

here Monday.

Consequently, the question of whether or not Evelyn Nesbit Thaw is to tell the entire narrative of her alleged downfall at Stanford White's hands in open court, or in camera, may not be finally decided until Tuesday or Wednesday.

May Tell All Publicly.

May Tell All Publicly.

and chorus girl. Her testimony regarding Thaw's eccentricities while he was attentive to her in this country, while the two were travelling together the two were travell coutor threw public decency into the seem warried.

for a hearing in camera for that por-Mr. Peabody announced that Harry tion of Evelyn Thaw's testimony will Thaw's former teacher, Miss Belle be denied.

to attempt to disprove statements made Evelyn Thaw Will Be Withdrawn. by Evelyn to Thaw it is expected that Le will leave no stone unturned to As a result of the coming of Miss snow her un as a falsifier, thereby Lawrence, whose evidence is counted clearing the name of Stanford White.

fense for next week. The school had mistreated her, showered presents teacher will take the stand on Monday upon her, mistreated her again, and then given her more presents, on'y to Miss Lawrence will be followed by Mrs. William Thaw, who is anxious to complete her evidence by describing the infancy and childhood of Stanford White's slayer.

Tuesday, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw will probably go lack to the witness chair, unless it should be arranged to hold the main details of her testimony in Parsanelly.

District-Attorney Jerome did not want Thaw's wife to publicly repeat the shocking recital which at the last trial took five days in the telling. The pros-